The GAVEL
A report from your
President

I hope none of the members had too much damage from the hurricane. I had to cancel the Men's Club Luncheon. On Monday before the luncheon all CA buildings were closed with no information on when they would reopen.

October 31, we held our open house at Community Hall. We had tables as the guest entered to dispense information and solicit volunteers. The tables were Men's Club Lifeline, Men's Club Health and Men's Club Membership, Samaritan Services, Security Patrol, Emergency Squad, and Sun Towers. Sun Towers supplied the brownies and ice cream. The Bluewater Band (two local residents) kept everyone entertained between the brief talks and basket drawings. The Men's Club and Travel World supplied the $2000 cruise voucher that was raffles off. The attendance (100) was disappointing. The board will discuss how to improve attendance.

At our October luncheon the slate of officers will be presented and be voted on. We will open the floor to any other nominations before voting. Anyone willing to help with the board duties please see me and we will discuss how your talents can help The Men's Club
